Description:

A warm welcome to Tile Range. The only tile shop in Leicester that boasts the most exclusive range of porcelain floor and wall tiles at unbeatable and almost half the price to everywhere else. We attract customers from different cities across England and we come highly recommended.

From luxury marble effect tiles to stone effect or concrete tiles, extra large format tiles to a 30x60 size tile, we have something for everyone.

our Leicester tile store also has an affluent selection of gorgeous wood effect tiles, from the traditional dark wood, to a modern glossy look.

As one of the leading tile retailers in Leicester, we aim to help our customers in saving money without compromising on the quality of all the tiles that we sell and we do this by working directly with the factories, cutting out any middle man costs. Please visit our reviews on google, or even better please pick up the phone and give us a call and our expert staff are at hand to answer any questions that you may have.
